SCHOOL – PARENT COMPACT

*Show me a home where education and learning are central values and where the parents are reasonably competent at the business of child-rearing, and I'll show you the home of a good student.
(William Raspberry)*

THE SCHOOL AGREES TO:

Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment annually. Uses multiple sources of information in determining strengths and needs of the school. Disaggregates and analyzes the data by gender, ethnicity, ELL status, migrant status, disabled vs. non-disabled, and economic dis-advantagement.

From the needs assessment, establishes schools goals and individual student achievement standards.

Outline curriculum that has been proven effective (scientifically based research)
Aligns curriculum, instruction, and assessment to meet the state core curriculum, performance and accountability standards.

Provide extended learning time opportunities to disadvantaged children

Provide accelerated, high quality curriculum that enables all students to achieve challenging standards.

Implement transition activities to ensure the effective transition from preschool to elementary school and from elementary school to the next level.

Ensure that educational services are provided by highly qualified teachers and Para-professionals.

Ensure that high quality on-going professional development activities are available to staff and these activities increase teacher capacity in making instructional decisions.

Provide a safe climate conducive to student learning.

Involve parents in the development of goals and expectations.

Build the capacity of parents to help their children achieve high standards.

Share assessment and evaluation data with parents and/or the public.
